

Hero2Hired assists unemployed Guard & Reserve Service Members with job placement

The goal of the program is to reduce the number of Reserve & Guard Service Members who are unemployed by assisting with the employment processes.

EMPLOYMENT SERVICES

5275 FRANKLIN ST.

DENVER, CO 80216

HERO2HIRED will be available 9:00 AM – 4:30 PM at the Denver Armory (November 5, 19th, December 3, and 17th, 2014 to provide on-on-one employment assistance and training to local Reserve & Guard Service Members. Drop in welcome. Outside the Denver area contact me for a scheduled one-on-one in your area.

*PLEASE BRING AN ELECTRONIC COPY OF YOUR RESUME ON A CD
NO JUMP DRIVES*

DISCUSSION POINTS:

Resume 101 (Civilian & Federal)

Interviewing 101

Matching Your Skills with Employment Opportunities

Professional Dress

Employment Services include:

- Employment search assistance
- Resume Building Assistance
- Assistance on www.ebenefits.va.gov website
- And to answer any question you may have about searching for employment

There are computers available, but you will be unable to use any type of thumb drive

We are always available during the week for appointments at

Becky Small, MBA, CTR

Employment Contractor

12200 E. Briarwood Ave., Ste. 160

Centennial, CO 80112

720-250-1188

Call to Schedule an Appointment Today

Department of Defense Partnership of Programs

Supporting Reserve Component Members, Families, and Employers